PhotoNOLA’s 16th Annual Festival
December 8-12, 2021 in New Orleans

PhotoNOLA, New Orleans’ annual festival of photography is produced by the New Orleans Photo Alliance (NOPA), a volunteer-run, 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization. Every December, PhotoNOLA partners with museums, galleries, and alternative venues across the Crescent City to showcase extraordinary bodies of photographic work. Established and emerging artists join nationally-prominent curators, publishers, gallerists, editors, and art collectors to attend exhibitions, portfolio reviews, lectures, workshops, and educational programming throughout the city. Most events are free and open to the public, in large part due to sponsors, funders and partnerships.

PhotoNOLA is the premier opportunity to reach New Orleans’ vibrant photographic community, as well as patrons traveling from all over the globe to attend. We very much hope that you will consider sponsoring our upcoming celebration of photography that is as unique and vibrant as the city that inspired it.

I found a city booming. So much so that I only saw a fraction of what was on display. Photography exhibitions were everywhere. Robot parades, Second lines, lectures, openings, music, art, it was everywhere. PhotoNOLA rocks, and New Orleans rocks.

Portfolio Reviews

PhotoNOLA’s Portfolio Review program offers 70 photographers the chance to present their work to influential members of the photographic community. Face-to-face meetings with gallery owners, editors, publishers, and museum curators from throughout the U.S. and abroad provide photographers with networking opportunities, critical advice, and guidance for bringing their work to a larger audience. The Portfolio Review program is so highly regarded by the national photo community that the 70 spots are booked almost immediately after registration opens.

PhotoWALK

PhotoNOLA Portfolio Review participants share their work during an evening portfolio walk in the Ogden Museum’s Patrick F. Taylor Library. The PhotoWALK is free to attend and provides the public an opportunity to see a cornucopia of photography in one historic space. It is one of the most popular events during the entire festival, regularly attracting well-over 1000 attendees every year.

Exhibitions

From venerable institutions like the Historic New Orleans Collection to restaurants and coffee houses, over 65 venues all over New Orleans exhibit photography in conjunction with the PhotoNOLA festival each year. The entire Crescent City becomes a showplace for beautiful and powerful images that attract a steady flow of visitors throughout the month of December.
KEYNOTE LECTURE

A luminary of the photographic community gives the annual PhotoNOLA Keynote Address at the New Orleans Museum of Art. In recent years, Keith Carter, Xavierra Simmons, and Emmett Gowin have all inspired audiences with their creative insights and wisdom. The event is free and open to the public and yearly attracts standing-room only crowds.

EDUCATION & WORKSHOPS

PhotoNOLA offers opportunities to learn about a wide variety of photo-related subjects. Last year alone, attendees received valuable instruction on how to edit their portfolios, market their photography, create luminous tintype images, and hone their creative visions. Cig Harvey, Richard Renaldi, Matt Black, and Ruddy Roye are but a few of the world-class photographers who have led workshops and given lectures in recent years.

VIRTUAL EVENTS / VR

MetaCulture X PhotoNOLA : In partnership with MetaCulture a Black-owned virtual events business founded on the idea of increasing diversity in the metaspace, PhotoNOLA was able to continue with the festival during the unprecedented times during the pandemic, while expanding our audience and community. Through the social VR platform, Altspace, MetaCulture and PhotoNOLA worked together to change conceptions of how art is presented and received. MetaCulture X PhotoNOLA featured 53 Photographers 17 Galleries spanning 3 days of the festival.

ABOUT THE FENCE

The PhotoNOLA FENCE is a 1000-foot photography installation coming to New Orleans this winter for the very first time!
